

DOCUMENTARY

Rail Road

UHD-filmed Traveling Road Documentary, 2014, 3 x 20 min

Part1. A train and a landscape

Part2. A sweet room of memories, a train station

Part3. Analog Rail

Seventy percent of Korean territory is covered with mountains. Across the Baekdu-daegan which is 684km long and designated by the government as a preservation zone in 2005, this program shows the extensive and wonderful sceneries and people's lives and the look.

The Train

UHD-filmed Healing Essay Documentary, Release in 2015, 1 x 60 min

Train journey of the Korean Peninsula to ever be filmed in UHD!

Life is a feeling, not seeing. Music is a enjoying, not playing. A nineteen girl having a big dream is making a special way out and a musician making a special journey for music. The girl meets the world with thrill and worry and the musician has been rushing with little soul into the life. His analog journey is starting with rest along the railway, encountering his youth of innocence. From an emotional journey on the train to building a memory with cherished relationships, it makes your memory and genuineness back.

Seorabeol - A Search for the Millennium Palace

History, 2014, 1 x 60 min

Current Status of Silla's Capital City Restoration Project and the Direction of Restoration in Korea

The vanished royal palace of Gyeongju, millennium capital of Silla. Solve the mystery within Seorabeol's history!
 "Seorabeol, a search for the millennium palace" is a history documentary that sheds new light on the history of the sleeping Seorabeol and envisions the Gyeongju of the future.

Broadcast. MBC

Broadcast. D-One

Korean Fever

Current Affairs, 2013, 2 x 50 min

Part 1. Korean culture! I like it!

Part 2. Story telling about Korean culture

It is time to feel Korea's Fever in the world!

Today, Korean wave are loved by people all over the world. Why do people all over the world go crazy about Korean pop culture such as TV dramas and K-Pop?

This program sheds light on the present of Korean pop culture and examines the value of the global Korean contents.

Lie of Adam Truth of Eve

Current Affairs, 2014, 2 x 50 min

Part 1. Sex of mankind, How does it affect culture?

Part 2. How much do you know about the sex education for your kids?

- Average age of the first sex: 13.6 years
- Exposed teens pornography: No.1 in the world
- The highest rate of abortions of single mother in the OECD countries

This program examines the actual condition of Korea sex education and introduces the alternative plan after searching the programs from the advanced nations such as Netherlands, Belgium, France and the U.K.

Broadcast. Pax TV

Dokdo, the jewel island

Current Affairs, 2013, 1 x 50 min

Dokdo is a beautiful Korean island.

What a beautiful island, Dokdo consists of 36 rocky volcanic islands in the East Sea of Korea. The seas surrounding Dokdo are rich fishing grounds. However, it has been at the center of a territorial dispute between Korea and Japan, which Koreans call Dokdo and Japan calls Takeshima.

This program shows the historical evidence from an objective perspective and examines the hard efforts that Dokdo is Korean territory.

Broadcast. MBC Plus Media

Steel Route

History, 2013, 3 x 50 min, English Dubbed / Spanish Dubbed

For the first time ever, the documentary that contains the history of steel.

Episode List

Part 1. Steel is Power

Part 2. The Age of Steel

Part 3. The Rise of Steel in Korean Peninsula

How did steel really change a civilization? During times when all weapons were made of rock, wood and bronze... The one with steel gained control over power!

What was the crucial factor that decided a nation's rise and fall? The rise and fall of nations that followed the path of steel. Penetrating the 3,500-year history of civilization. This documentary follows the long journey of steel, covering 8 nations across the world.

Broadcast. CBS

Bible Route Series

History, 2012, 20 x 30 min or 10 x 60 min

Bible Route I

8 Episodes / 30min / SD / English Dubbed

It vividly describes the civilization and the legacy of mankind while retracing the route of the spread of Christianity in the Middle East, Europe, Africa, and Asia.

Bible Route II

4Episodes / 50min / HD

Following the Exodus route, it focuses on the 40 years of Israelites' lives in the wilderness and retraces the course of life of Jesus Christ, Messiah, the Savior of mankind.

Christian Renaissance

2Episodes / 60min / SD / English Dubbed

It shows the early churches of Christianity in Egypt and Turkey which were flourishing during the period after the Ascension of Jesus Christ.

Loving Dog

Animal, 2013, 1 x 50 min

Another Family, Loving Dog!

A fine dog and a good dog is different. How could human be a dog's good companion? It is hard to judge a friend of dog from the breed and the name. Loving Dog gives reflection for dog and world vision about the recent trend of pet dog. We should hope to love dog by ourselves.

Loving dog, that is just respect them who they are.

Broadcast. Business& TV

Good Capitalism

Society, 2013, 2 x 50 min

Like children who happily share a loaf of bread, people were more peaceful and happy when we divided and shared things together.

We have been through the era of possessiveness. However, when we have to make the most rational decisions, people choose cooperation and sharing instead of co-destruction, as they create more good for everyone involved.

It is because cooperation and sharing are human nature and the most rational decisions.

Broadcast. MBC

The Grand Master

Human, 2012, 9 x 60 min

- Part 1. Taecyeon, Martial Art
- Part 2. Gakdoin, Jade Sculptor
- Part 3. Sagijang, Ceramic Making
- Part 4. Byeolsingut, Village Ritual
- Part 5. Nubijang, Quilting)
- Part 6. Gayageum, Korean Harp
- Part 7. Seungjeonmu, Victory Dance
- Part 8. Somokjang, Wood Furniture Making
- Part 9. Simbang, Shaman

There are the intangible cultural masters in Korea. They preserve Korean culture, history in art, dancing, making cultural assets. From this program, we can find that How can they continue to extend traditional Korean culture, and introduce the excellence of Korean culture to the whole world.

Last Nomad

Culture, 2012, 3 x 50 min

Episode 1 : An endangered Darkhard

Episode 2 : The dying tribe, Evenks

Episode 3 : Immortal nomad soul, Tsaatan

Daxing' anling, a Volcanic mountain range in northeast China, is explored to visit people in the mountainous area, people in the prairie, its river and its vast plains.

A Shadow of Coexistence

Current Affairs, 2012, 2 x 50 min

It has been harder to meet rhinos and elephants due to the indiscriminate poaching and seizure of them.

Now, rhinoceros and elephants are listed in endangered wildlife. The incessant selfishness and greed of human being have forced them to extinction.

This program aims to signpost to go on for future coexistence between human, wildlife and environment through the brutal survival of an orphaned baby elephant and a rhino with no

Broadcast. MBC

Selected by
Aljazeera
International

Empire of Gold

History, 2012, 3 x 55 min, English Script

Part 1. Gold Odyssey

Part 2. Gold, the Ruler of Desire

Part 3. Return of Gold

Gold shined brightly in 2009 so that the term "The New Gold Rush" was coined. The price of gold began to skyrocket and as people fought to acquire it. It has been 40 years since gold standard disappeared in history, but the country that reserves gold still dominates the world and the countries that try to take over struggle to acquire more gold.

This program explores the reasons why we obsess over gold and how gold changed the destiny of humanity. The vivid journey that connects the East and the West, land and sea and past and present! In the midst of all, there is the Empire of Gold.

Salt War

Current Affairs, 2011, 2 x 55 min, English Dubbed

This documentary will explain the changes of our minds as well as our thoughts of salt consumption. Travel to Australia, France, China, Poland and Japan and bring you “salt wars.”

Part 1. Salt: The White Gold of Earth

Part 2. Solar Sea Salt, The Rock of Life

Salt is a known mineral that causes diseases such as high blood pressure, muscle cramps, dizziness, electrolyte disturbance and the less you consume it, the better for the body.

Today, however, salt usage is diversifying and the salt industry is emerging as a high value-added industry, but why salt?

As many different countries and nations such as Australia, France, China, Poland and Japan discover the importance of salt and its medical and daily importance.

We see salt in every living species known in the world. The importance of salt can be explained to you with endless chapters. Salt is so proficient that there is a fierce global competition to occupy as much salt as possible of the worlds' salt market.

Silk of Three Kingdoms - Korea, China, Japan

Culture, 2012, 1 x 55 min

Jinju, the city of silk, where Korea's silk industry has been centered for the past 100 years but people's hope in silk is becoming weaker.

Survey in China and Japan which are strong with silk will be conducted and give clues to the questions surrounding Korea's task to make Jinju strong again with silk.

Restoring the 100-year industry of Jinju with its ups and downs will help continue the pages.

Broadcast. SeoKyung TV

Broadcast. MBC

Longhorn Beetle

Nature, 2011, 1 x 60 min

UN declared the year of 2010 to 'Year of Biodiversity.' Korea also legislated endangered plants and animals natural monuments, protects them, and some restoration work is in progress. In particular, as for Longhorn Beetle which is the Natural Monument No. 218, domestic institutions signed an agreement with Far Eastern Branch of the Russian Academy of Sciences and the experts has been prepared for 'the Longhorn Beetle restoration project.' This program explores their habitats and visits the site where they are restored.

Broadcast. CJ E&M

The Battle of Earth, Rare Earth Resources

Current Affairs, 2011, 1 x 44 min,

What is a rare earth resource? That's just what it is, rare soil an earth. 17 rare elements found throughout the earth that are not only used in the production of LCDs, notebooks and hybrid cars but are the 'cutting edge vitamins' in the production of smart weapon technology. How can we show our competence in the resource development; for survival in the 21st century? What is our survival strategy in the natural resource war that will ultimately intensify with time.